As the East Coast once again digs out of the snow, this week's Private Fund Update describes:

- The major housing finance reform bill released over the weekend by the two top Senators on the Senate Banking Committee (Johnson and Crapo);
- The five bills that passed the House Financial Services Committee last week; and
- The SEC's new enforcement cooperation initiative for municipal underwriters and issuers.

Relatively slow week ahead with Congress out of town. Key things to watch this week include:

- Tuesday's CFTC roundtable on risk management by commodity pool operators;
- Wednesday's 8th Annual U.S. Chamber of Commerce Capital Markets Summit in DC;
- Janet Yellen's first press conference as Chair of the Federal Reserve Board, which takes place Wednesday after the FMOC meeting.

Venable, LLP tracks a wide range of regulatory issues, so please contact me for more information regarding anything contained in this update.

The 113th Congress

House of Representatives

House Financial Services Committee

Markup of Five Bills – The HFS passed five bills last week:

- H.R. 3584, the “Capital Access for Small Community Financial Institutions Act,” which amends the Federal Home Loan Bank Act to authorize privately insured credit unions to become members of a Federal Home Loan Bank, was approved by a vote of 55-0. Allowing privately-insured credit unions to access the Federal Home Loan Bank System would provide these credit unions with a new insured source of mortgage funding for their members;
- H.R. 2672, the “CFPB Rural Designation Petition and Correction Act,” which amends the Dodd-Frank Act to allow for an application process for counties to be designated as rural areas with respect to the CFPB's Qualified Mortgage Rule, passed the Committee by a vote of 55-1;
- H.R. 3623, the “Improving Access to Capital for Emerging Growth Companies Act,” which among other things creates simplified disclosure requirements for emerging growth companies, was approved by a vote of 56-0.
- H.R. 4161, the “Small Company Disclosure Simplification Act,” which exempts smaller public companies relating to use of Extensible Business Reporting Language (EBRL) for SEC reporting, passed the Committee by a vote of 51-5.
- H.R. 4167, the “Restoring Proven Financing for American Employers Act,” which excludes certain debt securities of CLOs from the Volcker Rule, passed the Committee by a vote of 53-3.

Hearing on Federal Reserve – Last week HFSC held a hearing on the Federal Reserve entitled “Federal Reserve Oversight: Examining the Central Bank's Role in Credit Allocation.” Witnesses were:
